DEDICATION

As a token of our appreciation of his untiring efforts in our behalf, we, the Senior Class of 1941 of Lucerne High School, do dedicate to Mr. C. G. Smith, this fifth volume of the Spotlight.

FOREWARD

One day I happened to notice Charles W. Eliot's description of personality-- a much-spoken-of-topic which is often misunderstood.

"Everyone now believes that there is in a man animating, ruling, characteristic essence, or spirit, which is himself. This spirit, dull or bright, petty or grand, pure or foul, looks out of the eyes, sounds in the voice and appears in the manners of each individual. It is what we call personality.

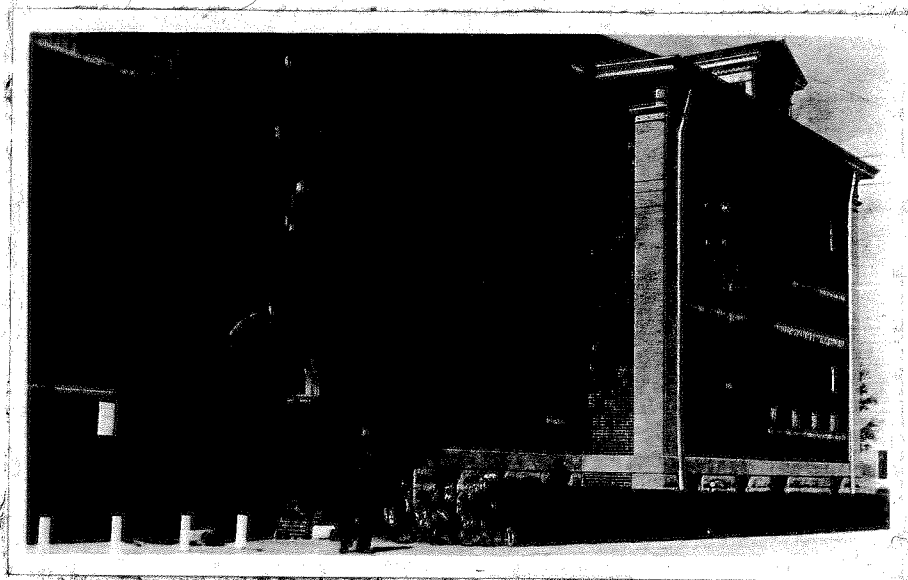

Books have personalities too. Some seem dull, downcast, while others are cheerful and bring happiness. This has been the desire of the 1941 Spotlight staff--to publish a book full of cheer and bring happiness through cherished memories of high school days.

And so the Spotlight, published by the CLASS OF 1941, has been packed with snapshots, write-ups, and pictures of all phases of school life.

PROPHECY

As it had always been my wish to see a real desert, my dream was fulfilled in June, 1952, for I was standing on the edge of a desert. Looking out on the vastness of our world, I could see great clouds of dust in the distance. As I watched, my gaze seemed to hold to one particular cloud and soon I could see the Lucerne School Building.

There was Margaret Herd, who, as a designer for women's hats, had changed her name to Madame de Marquerite Du Herduende Lauzieu. Poor Margaret used to be such a sensible girl.

Thomas Gates was driving the Dillman Milk Truck. But unlike all other drivers he had for company an assortment of blondes and brunettes because Marcia was busy at home with the new twins.

Junior Baker had become discouraged, because the girls wouldn't fall for him and had affiliated himself with the United Air Lines, hoping to find a good looking stewardess.

Way back in good old '41, no one would have guessed that Dorothy Bechdol was destined to be a great movie star, but I found her competing with the figure of Alice Faye.

Although everyone knew Alta Wallace was wearing a diamond in '41, I was astonished to see her in New York modeling clothes. Incidentally though, I wasn't surprised when I heard she was modeling only those designed by her husband, James Samsel.

Gene Howard, who waited one whole year to marry Helen Swisher, had decided he liked the life of a National Guard better than that of a married man.

Just as I expected, Mary Annis was a stewardess on an airplane flying throughout the United States and was entertaining the passengers by playing trumpet solos.

Mickey McNaught finally graduated from a coaching school and landed a job as football coach for the Jacktown Crickets.

Helen Hoover had taken her place with the well known, Hedy Lamarr and Mae West.

Mary Margaret Montgomery, the world famous soprano, was performing nightly from 12:00 until 4:00 A. M. at the Gulp-'em-Down Night Club.

Ora Shanks, the one man that had a way with the women, shocked the world by settling down on a farm near Royal Center with his little Kentuckian family.

Suddenly the dust cloud seemed to diminish and disappear beyond the horizon. I came out of my reverie with a start and knew that I had visioned all the Seniors of 1941.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Lucerne High School, do bequeath our ability of having a good time to our classmates and student teachers.

I, Mary Annis, do bequeath my ability to behave in the assembly when a teacher is absent to Alfred Roller, and my seat in orchestra to C. B. Shideler if he thinks he can fill it properly.

I, Junior Baker, do bequeath my ability to make love to the girls to Jimmy Prushour so that he can escort Lois Black and also my ability to date Dorothy Barr to Don Elliott so she will go with him the next time he asks her for a date.

I, Dorothy Bechdol, do bequeath my timidity to Pauline Herd and my smallness to June Ann Winn.

I, Tom Gates, do bequeath my ability to make love to my employer's daughter to C. B. Shideler so that he can make a hit with Dorothy Barr.

I, Margaret Herd, do bequeath my office job and all my back pay, if she thinks she can collect it, to June Winn; also, my warm-up periods in orchestra to C. B. Shideler.

I, Helen Hoover, do bequeath my ability to watch softball games to Violet Keeseey and my Army and Marine boyfriends to Rosella Shanks.

I, Gene Howard, do bequeath my ability to pick a Center girl to George Nies and my driving ability to Morris Keeseey.

I, Mickey McNaught, do bequeath my ability to make love and dance to Mr. Metzger so that he won't be a bachelor all his life and my friendship for Jack Steinwedel to Lois Winn.

I, Mary Margaret Montgomery, do bequeath my love for the Royal Center boys to Rosella Shanks and my dancing ability to Betty Lower.

I, Ora Shanks, do bequeath my ability to make love and see movies on Saturday and Sunday nights to J. W. Montgomery so he can come to basket-ball practice.

I, Alta Wallace, do bequeath my ability to make up my mind which boy friend I want to go with to Pauline Herd.

We, the Senior Boys, do bequeath our ability to get out of school and classes to the on-coming seniors. Here's hoping that Nies's rattle-trap carries them as far as "Sadie" carried us.

LADY, BE GOOD

A farce-comedy, "Lady, Be Good", was presented by the senior class on Tuesday evening, November 12, 1940, in the High School Auditorium.

The cast of characters in order of their appearance was as follows:

Jennings, a butler-----Gene Howard
 Julie, a maid-----Dorothy Bechdol
 George Gresham, with a future-----Mickey McNaught
 Aunt Flavia, Patience's aunt---Helen Hoover
 Dawn O'Day, you'll get up early to beat her Mary Annis
 Patience, who has none-----Margaret Herd
 John Colt, head of Paramount Radio Corporation-----Junior Baker
 Bill Trainor, a butler by chance--Tom Bates
 Bentley, a snooping news reporter--Ora Shanks
 Norah, a second maid-----Alta Wallace
 Trudy, a new recruit-----Mary M. Montgomery

Music was provided by the school orchestra; Mary Annis, Betty Foutz, June Winn, Marcia Dillman; Jean and Shirley Harrison.

"CALENDAR"

August 30- Back to school once again, some sad, some glad. We find two new teachers, Miss Furnish and Mr. Gregory. We welcome these new teachers to our school.

September 2- We come back this morning to start our regular routine of the past years. Smiles on some faces and frowns on others, (mostly smiles) as we are all ready for another year's hard work.

September 3- Everyone's getting along fine including the new teachers.

September 5- Hurrah!! It's Friday. Is everyone sad or glad? We imagine it's evenly divided.

September 8- This is the next day after the night before for some. These Mondays surely seem long, don't they?

September 9- Nothing exciting has happened since school began, but give the senior boys time with the help of our newcomer, Gene Howard.

September 10- Hurrah! says some boys and maybe some girls too. Tonight's the night for the show at Royal Center.

September 11- Why does Rosella Shanks look so sleepy this morning? Could it be she danced the whole night through? Let's ask those Center boys.

September 13- Surely good luck is coming our way. Some teacher (I wonder who!) left his citizenship paper lay in the assembly so some girls could change their grades.

September 15- Wooooo! Are our faces ?
A Freshman girl came up from gymn class forgetting to take off her shorts. She immediately reported to Mr. Smith, who gave her permission to exchange the clothes.

September 18- WORLD SERIES!! The seniors have a jumping jack in their class. At least it looked as if so when we were allowed to listen to the World Series to-day. Could it be the "Blondie" which Buck James is watching over?

September 27- INITIATION PARTY! Today, the freshmen got the thrill of their lives when they found how pretty and amusing they could be. The Sophomores got a thrill too, when they found how sticky chewing gum really is!

October 17- The eighth graders had a party and the seniors had play practice. Too bad the eighth graders had to give away their candy suckers to keep away the tears of the Senior boys!

October 18- Boys! Boys! Always come back to the assembly after being excused from Typing class.

October 21- We didn't need a radio today. Some prima donna furnished us with her own arrangement of the latest hit tune. It could be heard in several rooms.

October 22- The photographer for the annual started to work today.

November 6- The BIRD SHOW- We were entertained today by a program consisting of birds and also a monkey which reminded several of us of some of the students.

November 11- The juniors presented a short program today for Armistice Day.

November 12- Tonight, the Senior play!

November 13- What happened to Junior Baker's coke that he had to drink in the play? We wonder!!

November 14- Why does Jean Beckley sit and stare at Gene Howard today? Could it be so many memories?

November 15- June Ann Winn has a new method for getting upon the stage, doesn't she? Ask Mr. Gregory, he'll know!!

November 19- Today we learned about life in the Orient. In an effort to evade classes, some students asked so many questions Mr. Smith had to stop them.

November 29- Does English class just bowl you over, Gene? Or, can't you stand yet? You'll have to watch those Center girls, Gene. There's a trick to every trade.

December 2- We were entertained by the magician tonight at the school. Did Lois Winn actually get her head cut off? We wonder!

December 11- Those Freshmen girls insist on writing to some of the basket-ball boys, don't they, Mr. Metzger? Today when one was called into the office of the principal she was questioned, but poor Jean couldn't understand why they could write letters at Center and not at Lucerne. Live and learn, Jean.

December 12- Tonight was the biggest ball game yet. Was it good? I should say. Darkness to the delight of all lovers! How about it? One college boy and a Senior girl certainly enjoyed it!

December 13- We had a movie that was a movie today! "Meat and Romance" certainly attracted the attention, since every young high school student is interested in it. Isn't that right, Tommy, or should we ask Marcia?

December 16- The girls' chorus and boys' chorus serenaded us with Christmas carols today. Also, the Seventh and Eighth grades.

The International Club furnished a German refugee to speak to us tonight. Many of us received much interesting material to sleep on.

December 18- Oh dear!! exams today. Are they going to be hard? Oh, no!!! They never are.

December 19- The pupils didn't come to school today, but the teachers couldn't resist missing.

December 20- We came back to hear the Christmas program and distribute the presents. Was Jean Beckley thrilled with what J. W. got her? What do you think? Surely is a good example of "puppy love", isn't it?

December 30- SECOND SEMESTER!! Back to school once more. I think Santa Claus visited everyone but Mr. Gregory, and he wishes to announce that anyone receiving gifts for Christmas that they didn't like, please bring to him. We all feel so sorry for him. Boo! hoo!!!

December 31- Why on earth hasn't Ora Shanks been back to school since Christmas vacation? Is it those Center girls keeping him out too late, or is he resting up so he can celebrate New Year's Eve?

January 1- The Senior class takes this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy New Year. Why on earth is everyone so sleepy today? Could it be the next day after the New Year's celebration? Let's ask Margaret Herd.

January 2- Gene Howard looks awfully happy today. Could it be he saw his wonderful one last night, or is he looking forward to seeing her tonight?

January 3- Hurrah!! Lucerne beat Star City in basketball tonight. Keep up the excellent work, boys. And, Tom, watch those fists!

January 6- Today we listened to President Roosevelt's speech. My! My!! We actually got out a whole five minutes early. I'm sure it will snow tonight.

January 7- It did snow! was it because we got out of school five minutes early or because Mickey got to school safe in "Old Sadie"?

January 8- Why is Ora Shanks so happy? Is it because he found another Juliet after having his other romance broken up?

January 11- Lucerne has really got a ball team. They won another game last night. We surely hope J. W. Montgomery recovers soon.

January 13- Junior Baker was really surprised when about 21 of his friends helped him celebrate his birthday last night. We must have been hard on him since he didn't arrive at school today.

January 16- Quote: A freshman girl, "Why is it that the senior girls always have mirrors sitting on their desks?" A senior boy passing by hearing the remark, "Well, there's something to look at. They're not like those freshman." Unquote: Always stick up for your class. Thanks, Mickey.

January 17- Imagine Charlotte Clary going around calling Mr. Smith, "Kid." That's one way of keeping young, Mr. Smith.

January 21- Tom Gates is back today. These seniors just have to have their vacations, or do they?

January 22- The main thing around school now is to BEAT CENTER!!! We hope we do, but if we don't we'll be good sports.

January 23- One of the teachers, Mrs. Rhoades, is still absent today. We miss her especially when we have to sit in the assembly so much.

January 27- What's this we hear! Gates and Dillman broken up!! Tom didn't arrive today so he must be home with an ice pack on his head.

January 28- Maybe we should have a room set aside for the lovers to spend their noons in. We know Ross Howard thinks so.

January 29- The best place to meet the boyfriends is in front of the theater, isn't it? At least, that's the way certain Freshman girls do.

January 30- A movie was given today, and also a little talk to the boys entitled "Hats Off!"

January 31- On some of the 1st March girls go back to the table to read the news or to tell the news to their best girlfriends.

February 3- Surely Glad Marcia and Ted are back together since we wouldn't want Marcia to be without a boyfriend.

February 4- Some girls still insist on writing love letters to the basketball players.

February 5- What if it is you? Would rather go to snow than play basketball. Who knows best: the coach or Pop? We wonder!

February 6- Mr. Roselle should get a new boyfriend or is it just a possibility?

February 7- Also Monday, every senior will testify to it and some others too!

February 11- Popularity contest is going strong.

February 12- We almost forgot Lincoln's birthday today. Never forget that day ever again.

February 14- Oooh! Oooh!! Valentine Day. All the girls will probably be sick tomorrow from eating so much candy.

February 15- Little did we know! Paul Schette and Dorothy Barr!!

February 17- Roselle should jump out in a night that she couldn't turn a corner on the heels with the modern machine.

February 18- We surely hope Mrs. Leight is back today with her blanket. She will love her love to keep her warm.

February 19- Yell!! Yell!! Yell!! Hey hey hey, the seniors are 100% strong again. We're glad, well I guess. Good old Seniors, yes, yes, yes!!

February 20- My!! My!! What happened to Jimmie Martin and Lorna Miller. Let love take its course.

February 21- Too bad, Miss Furnish can't write things on the board to suit Mr. Gregory.

February 24- What's this we hear about Mickey McNaught falling off the chicken house? We knew he was used to falling in love, but not that!

February 25- Did the Juniors get industrious all of a sudden? They sold candy today.

February 27- Mr. Gregory surely can yell, especially in the assembly!

February 28- The Lions really roared today. Swell game, boys, and good luck!

March 1- The Lions roared, but not loud enough. Twelve Mile got a good game.

March 3- All the seniors are feeling a slight bit tired this morning after helping Mickey McNaught celebrate his birthday last night.

March 4- Seems as if Jimmie Martin is trying to make a hit with Betty Lower now.

March 5- A play was given by the eighth grade today. After all, the Model T is still not forgotten.

March 6- A show was given today. Too bad it couldn't have lasted longer.

March 7- The 7th grade gave a show entitled "Boy Scouts on Parade". There surely were a lot of "love birds" here.

March 10- Mickey McNaught, as well as Tom Gates, surely can find excellent excuses to miss school.

March 11- Everyone has missed June Ann since she has been sick. Everything is so quiet.

March 12- Marcia Dillman surely is angry because she didn't receive a part in the Junior play. Better luck next time, Marcia.

March 13- Seniors seem to take turns at missing school.

March 17- Everyone seems to be getting the spring fever. At least there are symptoms.

March 18- Helen Hoover will get her shoes to fit her feet now, since her boyfriend is working in the shoe department in the B&B now.

March 19- Play practice is going full speed now. The juniors look like it.

March 20- SPRING!!!!???????????????? Adieu.....

FRESHMAN INITIATION PARTY

The members of the Sophomore class and their sponsor, Mr. Gregory, entertained the Freshman class at an initiation party in the Lucerne High School Gymnasium on September 27, 1940. On their arrival at school in the morning the boys were painted with red and black, wore ear rings and hair ribbons and rolled their pant legs to the knees. The girls were painted with cold cream and wore green bonnets on their heads and signs on their backs.

The Freshmen suffered many humiliations. They became acquainted with the paddle, were branded in regular western style, walked on tacks, and endured countless other pranks.

After this, games were enjoyed by every one and refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated in keeping with the occasion.

Those present were members of the Freshmen and Sophomore classes, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Rhoades, Miss Furnish, Miss Hall, Mr. Metzger and Mr. Taylor. Mrs. Barr and Mrs. English helped with the refreshments.

BASKETBALL

SOFTBALL

The Lucerne Softball Club started out on low last fall and in the first game fell before the Twelve Milers. This did not daunt the club, for they came back and won over New Waverly, Twelve Mile, and Metea. For the final game Royal Center came on the scene, defeating them by five points. So Lucerne lost the three way tie for championship (which might have been) with Lucerne, Twelve Mile and Royal Center.

"BASKETBALL"

The Lions started by dropping the first six straight games; then rallied to beat Fulton, Star City, Kewanna and Onward, all in a row. From then on the Lions had hard luck, but came back in the sectional to beat Young America for the second time, which put them in the semi-finals with Twelve Mile. The game was lost in an overtime, but not without a good fight.

CONGRATULATIONS

To The Class Of 41

Life's success and achievements are gained by work and honest endeavors--the doing unto others as you would have them do unto you.

May you continue on toward the coveted goal of your ambition--blazing a trail of deeds worth while.

MAY AMERICA BE PROUD OF YOU!
