Class History

In 1936 six of the ten graduates of '49, Travis Kidd, Mary Montgomery, Elaine Frushour, Fay McQuinn, Nancy Winn and Lester Elliott started in the first grade with Miss Marie Blackburn as their teacher. Geneva Sterner from Star City joined our class in the seventh grade and Joan Wilson from Kewanna and Bertha King from Battleground entered our class in the eighth grade.

We began our Freshman year by being initiated by the Sophomores. We never will forget those chickens and carrots we had to carry around and also the sting of those paddles. We elected the following officers: Geneva Sterner, President; Mary Montgomery, Vice-President; and Joan Wilson, Secretary and Treasurer. We chose Charles Jones as our Class Sponsor.

The Freshman year passed quickly and soon we became sophomores. We all passed, of course! Janet Chapman from South Bend entered our class during our sophomore year and this completed the graduating class of '49. The class officers for the year were: Joan Wilson, President; Lester Elliott, Vice-President; Nancy Winn, Secretary and Treasurer. Our Class Sponsor was Bob Williams. This year we had the fun of initiating the Freshmen, ordering our class rings, and buying our class sweaters. (We bought red sweaters with blue '49 Numerals.)

After finishing our sophomore year we entered the Junior year feeling very BIG. We elected Joan Wilson as President; Nancy Winn as Vice-President; and Janet Chapman as Secretary and Treasurer. Mrs. Rebekah Wharton was our sponsor. Our Junior Play was a three-act farce, "Brother Goose," and was directed by Mrs. Curry. We decided to go on a trip to Washington D.C. in our Senior year, if we could make enough money, so we started thinking of ways to make money. In spite of all our unsuccessful doings we had made almost as much as we had anticipated at the end of the year. We received our class rings, and gave a reception for the graduating Seniors at the school house.

It didn't seem true, but it was. Yes; we were finally Seniors. This year we had to work hard in order to make enough money for the trip. Our class officers were: Joan Wilson, President; Lester Elliott, Vice-President; Bertha King, Secretary; and Janet Chapman, Treasurer. Our Class Sponsor was Mrs. Rebekah Wharton. Our Senior Play, "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town" was directed by Hildreth Hall. Our Senior pictures were taken at Rodkey's Studio at Delphi. As the school year drew to a close we saw that we would have sufficient funds to take that long dreamed of trip.

So, much to our dissapointment, we must leave good old Lucerne High, but we do so with many happy memories of the twelve years we spent there.

“Aunt Tillie Goes To Town”

Miss Tillie Trask (Geneva Sterner) an eccentric old maid, was greatly upset because her favorite niece, Pamela Marsh (Elaine Frushour), had announced her marriage to Mervin Tucker (Travis Kidd). She was called to town by her lawyer, and at the same time Mervin suddenly arrived. He deposited his suitcase in Aunt Tillie's living room and went to look for Ronald Howland (Lester Elliott), a pal whom he had wired to meet him at Aunt Tillie's. Aunt Tillie mistook his suitcase for hers and departed to town with it.

Ronald arrived looking for Mervin who had gone for a swim. When he came back, he was wearing a wooden barrel, since someone had stolen his clothes. Suddenly the doorbell rang, so Ronald pushed him and Aunt Tillie's suitcase behind the screen. The visitor turned out to be Mr. Lorriemer (Fay McQuinn) Ronald's wealthy employer who had arrived unexpectedly. When Mervin garbed in Aunt Tillie's attire came out from behind the screen and Ronald presented him as Aunt Tillie, the fun started. Aunt Tillie who had been in an accident came back garbed in Mervin's attire.

More complications were added by the arrival of Mervin's Aunt, Mrs. Tillie Tucker (Mary L. Montgomery). Lizzie (Nancy Winn), the town's most curious woman, and Ellen Neeland (Janet Chapman) who had just arrived from China didn't help matters. Lucinda (Joan Wilson) who was so anxious to be married, and Charles One Lung (Jack Herd) the Chinaman, added suspense to the already difficult situation. When Hattie Bing (Bertha Jo King) a strong and efficient chiropractor insisted on giving the hapless Mervin a treatment, the fun was at its height. There was never a dull moment during the entire three acts.

Last Will and Testament

We, THE SENIOR CLASS of the VILLAGE of LUCERNE, in the County of CASS and State of INDIANA, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this, our last WILL AND TESTAMENT in the manner following, that is to say:

We, the Senior Class, do bequeath all of our intelligence to the teachers of Lucerne High for future use, and all of our pranks to the future Seniors.

We, the Senior Girls, do bequeath our ability to get along in class meetings to the Sophomore girls, who are always fighting about hayrides.

We, the Senior Boys, do bequeath our ability to be model students and have perfect attendance records to the boys we left behind at Lucerne High.

I, Bertha King, do bequeath my ability to receive a car for graduation to Don Riemenschneider, who could use it.

I, Janet Chapman, do bequeath my ability to mimeograph the school paper correctly to Danny Powlen, so he won't waste so much paper.

I, Geneva Sterner, do bequeath my ability to warm the bench on the Logan Softball Team to Georgiann Riemenschneider.

I, Nancy Winn, do bequeath all my nicknames to Sandra Dillman, who dislikes being called nicknames.

I, Elaine Frushour, do bequeath my forwardness to Nellie Carter, so she will talk instead of whisper at school.

I, Mary Montgomery, do bequeath my ability to get the car after play practice and other occasions to Jean Ellen, so she can go to the corner and visit the Rance boys as I do.

I, Joan Wilson, do bequeath my ability to go steady for four years to Barbara Henry, so she may surpass my record.

I, Fay McQuinn, do bequeath my ability to be first in the shot put to Jean Ellen, so she may become the champion woman shot putter.

I, Lester Elliott, do bequeath my ability to go steady with one girl to Danny Powlen, who never goes with one more than three nights.

I, Travis Kidd, do bequeath my curly hair to Bill Cook, so his hair will stay in place during ballgames.

We hereby appoint WONDER WOMAN administrator of this, our last Will and TESTAMENT, with full power and authority to distribute and convey, lease or mortgage real estate, hereby revoking all former wills heretofore made.

Signed this 29 day of April, 1949

? 1969?

One summer when I was vacationing in California, I was scheduled to stay at the popular Brown-Astoria Hotel in Hollywood. As I entered the hotel and approached the desk, I thought I recognized the clerk. Yes, it was Nancy Winn, a Senior of '49. Of course, she recognized me, because I hadn't changed much in twenty years. She informed me that she was now Nancy Powlen, and that they were living in Hollywood because Bob was tired of farming and was trying to get into the movies. She was working to help out until Bob got his big break.

I inquired about the rest of her class, and she said that I would find most of them around Hollywood. The owner of the hotel was the former Joan Wilson. Of course her married name was Brown. She and Bud started this hotel, and have slowly drawn most of the forty-niners to Hollywood with them, as employees in their hotel.

The head bell-boy was none other than Lester Elliott. He couldn't make enough money farming to keep he and Roberta in new Pontiacs, so he had started a Pontiac agency in Hollywood and had taken the bell boy job to make contact with prospective customers.

Elaine Frushour was employed as hat-check girl in the hotel's famous night club. She had married Kenny, and it took all of her wages and tips to pay the bills, and for Kenny to keep the horses running at Santa Anita.

Travis Kidd was the hotel barber, and looked quite different than he did twenty years ago, since he had lost all but a few of his curly locks. He is quite happily married and has six little Kidd's running around the house.

Of course no hotel is complete without a good restaurant and Joan and Bud had picked a very capable manager in Janet Chapman. She is taking advantage of the good experience she received at Hart's. She owns a beauty shop with her sister Norma, but she still likes the restaurant work better because she meets more men.

Mary Montgomery is the receptionist in the restaurant, and having a wonderful time of it. Training her automobile to stop at the corner store must have paid off, for Nancy tells us her name is now Rance.

I also learned that Geneva Sterner is now a familiar name in the Girls' Baseball Association of America, as she is manager of the Chicago Rockers that had their spring training in Hollywood.

Nancy then informed us that Bertha King or Ingram, as her married name now is, runs the hotel garage. Leroy has invented a lot of new gadgets which Bertha has patented and received a lot of money for them.

Last, but not least, we learned that Fay had retired from the Pennsylvania Railroad, because of a back injury, and was living in a cottage not far from the hotel. Whenever he felt like working, he advised Bertha and Leroy on their car gadgets.

As other customers were clamoring for the clerk's attention and she had told me all about the forty-niners, I followed Lester to the suite reserved for special guests, as anyone from old Lucerne High School was bound to be.

"Toby Doodle Dandy"

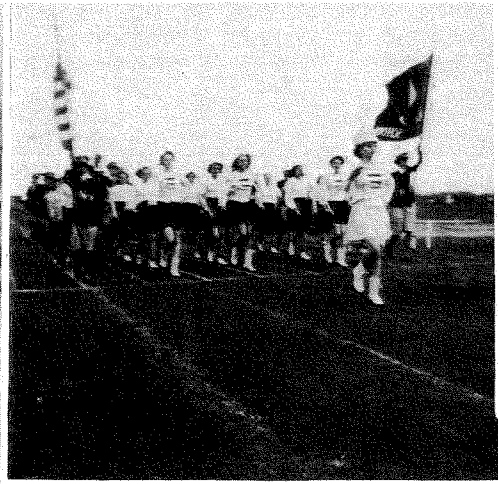

"Toby Doodle Dandy", a rip roaring farce, was well portrayed by the juniors of the Lucerne School. Toby, the hero, played by Charles E. Jones, mixed up the fifth columns, the military secrets, and the hilarious situations in a way that made the audience laugh till it hurt. Toby seemed quite dumb, but somehow his blunders spoiled the enemy's game everytime. He had taken the job of household servant for Mr. Mathews, played by Don Riemenschneider, who was working on chemical formulas for the army. Here in this household, he met the girl for him, Susie, the maid, ably played by Jean Hilkert. The only trouble was that she couldn't hear so well. Toby's sweet talk was always being misunderstood. The fifth columnists, Robert Rogers, Madame Beatrice La Coyne, and Hilda, the housekeeper, played by John Warren Frushour, Sarah Herd, and Georgainn Riemenschneider, tried to get possession of the chemical information. Toby went into action, and with the aid of Lyle Granger and Jerry Mathews played by Danny Powlen and Joan Beckley, brought the culprits to justice. Toby's side-splitting chatter and highly unmilitary maneuvers somehow managed to solve the situation in a very exciting twist.

Fay McQuinn Of Lucerne Sets New Shot Put Mark

Twelve Mile, April 26 — In a steady downpour the Twelve Mile track and field team outraced five other Cass county teams this afternoon to retain its county underpath title. It was the eighth win in nine years of county competition for Coach Russell Brown's blue and white thinly clad.

Twelve Mile registered 73 points, Galveston 36, Lucerne 1-3, Metea 25, Royal Center 2-3 and Washington Tp. 21. Fay McQuinn of Lucerne was the high scorer with 14 points and the only athlete to set a new record in the rain-swept field.

McQuinn hurled the shot 45 ft. 1 1/2 inches to erase the mark set by Carl McNulty of Washington Township last year at 45 ft. 1 1/2 inches. In addition McQuinn tied for first in the high jump, tied for second in the pole vault and ran on the Lucerne mile relay team which finished third.

The Bob Murden memorial award for outstanding achievement in the annual county track meet went to McQuinn of Lucerne.

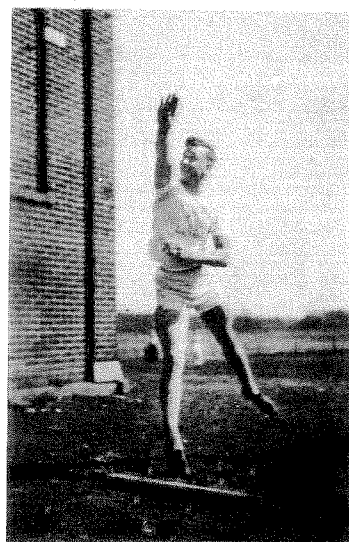

made it!

An all County League was formed for the first time in history and we won 6 games while losing 3, to tie for second place in the league standings. We tallied 119 runs to 59 for our opponents. The County Coaches selected an all county team after League play was over and Charles Jones was placed on the team as catcher and Charles Remley as third baseman. Fay McQuinn and Travis Kidd were the only seniors, so the Lions should be strong again next year.
