FOREWORD

Excuses and apologies we won't put here,
For we have constructed the pages at which you peer.
Let us offer to you our hard earned work,
That you may see where friends do lurk
Within the following pages.

Grudges and hatreds you'll not find here,
No cuss words, no violence, no signs of a tear,
For we are the happy seniors of "50" you see,
And we hope to go down in history
Within the following pages.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class, we must admit,
Has done its part, yes, quite a bit;
But the driving force behind it all
Is our class sponsor, HILDRETH HALL.
Her helpfulness we appreciate
So, to her this annual we dedicate.

CLASS HISTORY

The 1950 Senior Class of the Lucerne School started to school in the first grade with Miss Marie Blackburn as teacher. Donald Riemenschneider from Winamac joined the class in the fifth grade and remained to graduate. Others came and went, but our class did not gain in numbers. Seven entered high school but two, John Rayle and Robert Garland, moved away, so the number still remained five.

During the four years in high school Donald Riemenschneider was the president of the class for three years. Charles Eddie Jones served as vice president, but during the junior year, he served as president, and John Frushour served as vice president.

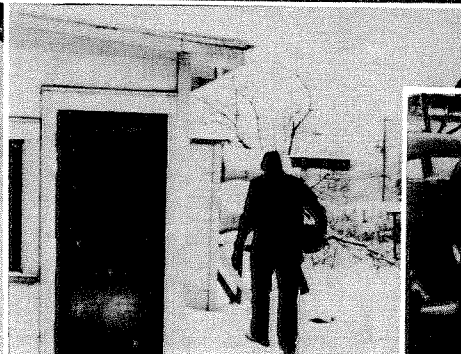

Jean Ellen Hilkert, as secretary and treasurer, has adequately taken care of the books and money during the first three years, but Danny Powlen relieved her of the money responsibility during the senior year, for that year the class elected both a secretary and a treasurer.

When this class entered high school, it was confronted with the fear of initiation by the sophomores. It outlived the rough treatment and proved to be worthy of being full-fledged freshmen. Mr. Jones was the class sponsor, and the class had many enjoyable times.

The next year the class had the traditional privilege of buying class sweaters, which were blue and gold, and also the class rings. Jean Ellen Hilkert won first place in the regional Latin contest. Mrs. Curry was the class sponsor.

At last the class had reached its junior year. There was the traditional junior play, "Toby Doodle Dandy", a magazine sales campaign, noon sales of pop and ice cream, and last but not least the Junior-Senior Reception. Miss Hall was the class sponsor.

1949! Seniors! The class had looked forward to this for twelve years. All participated in athletics. Jean Ellen was cheer leader. Don, Charles, Danny, and John were on both the softball and the basketball squad. Charles and Don represented the class in track. All received sweaters. Jean Ellen won the regional English contest. The class gave their senior play, "Yimmie Yonson's Yob". They also put out the annual, "Spotlight", sponsored by Bob Williams. The year was culminated by a trip to Washington D. C., Gettysburg, New York, and Niagara Falls. Miss Hall was the class sponsor.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, THE SENIOR CLASS of the VILLAGE of LUCERNE, in the County of CASS and State of INDIANA, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this, our last WILL AND TESTAMENT in the manner following, that is to say:

We, the Senior Class, do bequeath our ability to get along with each other to the juniors, who are always arguing.

We, the Senior Boys, do bequeath our ability to control the votes to the junior boys, who surely need it.

I, the Senior Girl, do bequeath my ability to get along with the other girls in my class to the junior girls.

I, Don Riemenschneider, do bequeath my ability to get my lessons to Jack Herd, so that he may put it with his own, and set a standing record of achievement.

I, John Frushour, do bequeath my ability to shoot long shots in a basketball game and make them (?) to Bill Cook, who always plays underneath the the basket. (?)

I, Jean Ellen Hilkert, do bequeath my ability to play softball for the Logan Girls to Janet Cramer, so she won't have to warm the bench next summer.

I, Charles Jones, do bequeath my glasses to Leon Wallace, so that when he plays basketball next year, he can make more points than he did when he was in the junior high. (If it is possible.)

I, Danny Powlen, do bequeath my Oldsmobile to Herbie Hanna, so that he can go to see all of his girl friends.

We hereby appoint MR. DISTRICT ATTORNEY administrator of this, our last WILL and TESTAMENT, with full power and authority to distribute and convey, lease or mortgage real estate, hereby revoking all former wills heretofore made

Signed the 27 day of Feb., 1950

TONTA

1970 ?

One evening in the spring of 1970, as I was sitting in my easy chair listening to the radio, I heard a name I thought I recognized, Riemenschneider. I listened closely, and sure enough, it was Don Riemenschneider they were speaking of. He has made quite a bit of progress since he graduated from Lucerne in '50. It seems that he is a professor at Indiana University and has discovered a new proposition in geometry.

I began to wonder what had become of the rest of that class. I was having some old classmates in for dinner that night, so I asked them if they knew.

Charles Jones (Casey) went to college at Indiana in the fall of '50. After he graduated, he coached at various schools until ten years ago when he started coaching at Lucerne. Under this able coach, Lucerne has won several county and sectional tourneys.

It seems that the class of '50 likes Lucerne pretty well, because after Jean Ellen Hilker graduated from Ball State in '54, she came to Lucerne to teach English and physical education. She stayed there for eleven years. Since that time, she has devoted her time to her home in Lafayette.

John Warren Frushour attended college at Notre Dame. He played four years on the varsity football squad, making All-American his senior year. Then he came back to Lucerne, after turning down several pro offers, where he is now a partner in the ever expanding Frushour Oil Company.

Danny Powlen remained on the farm, while the rest of his classmates went to college. It proved quite worth his while; for now Danny has his own farm, 290 acres, drives a convertible Cadillac, is married, and has six children.

As my guests were leaving, I was still thinking about one of the smallest classes to graduate from Lucerne, the seniors of 1950.
