THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

The chorus sang four songs: "For the Beauty of the Earth," "Thanksgiving Prayer," "Now the Day is Over," and "Fairest Lord Jesus".

Reverend Swedburg gave a message about the Empire State Building and one dime. Then he closed the program with a short prayer.

The same four songs were sang for Parent and Teachers Association the meeting before Thanksgiving.

CHRISTMAS

Due to the fact that the weather was too bad to permit Santa to come on schedule, we had Christmas on January 1. The grades persented a program for the students and the parents.

Class Prophecy

1972?

While I was strolling down Fifth Avenue recently in New York City, I came upon someone whom I thought I ought to know. After introducing myself, I found that this lady was none other than Janet Cramer, now a famous baseball player of The Bloomer Girls, of Cleveland, Ohio and married to the pitcher of the New York Giants. That evening she was going to dine at the Waldorf-Astoria with an old classmate, James Stevens.

At her invitation, I gladly went along for I wanted to find out about the members of the class of '52, who had graduated from Lucerne High School.

Dutch, I found, was a general in the army-- the facsimile of "Ike". He had been stationed in Africa, where now the fifth World War is going on, but now he was home on leave.

Between Dutch and Janet, I found out all about the rest of the class. Shortly after graduating Marilyn Sue had married Gene. Both he and she are manager and assistant respectively of a J. C. Penny store. They also have two children. Joan, an old friend of Marilyn's, has become a famous concert pianist. Someday she hopes to go back to give a recital at Lucerne, which has a population of 26,000.

When she graduated, Sue Winn took a law course at Indiana University. She is now one of the best lawyers of the state. One of her most recent cases was Connelly vs. Newell. It seems that the car of a Mr. George Connelly was run into by the car of a Mr. Robert Newell. Sue won the case for Mr. Connelly and he collected $11.79 damages.

Hank, I learned, had settled on one of the Elliott farms around Lucerne and married Beverly after she graduated. By now he has learned not to run the horsetank over. But no one seemed to know what Kate Swank and Virginia Lind were doing. Later, back in Janet's apartment, we turned on the television set. "Animal Hour" was on. And there-- making the animals go through their paces was Kate and Ginny. After graduating they had become animal trainers--specializing in lions. At last the mystery was solved. I could relax in the realization that the seniors of '52 were making good and useful citizens of themselves.

Class History

On August 30, 1940, sixteen timid little boys and girls started their first day in school. Miss Marie Blackburn with a warm smile greeted Delores Bailey, June Brown, Lavughn Brown, Timothy Collier, Marilyn Cotner, Thelma Harrison, Paul Henry, George Moyer, Roger Ness, Gerald Raderstorf, Joan Roller, Ray Shackelford, J. D. Smith, Erma Belle Stark, Paul Winn, and Sue Winn. Darryl Baker, Mae Hammond, Beverley Bebee, and Donald Williamson later joined the class. During this year the class was shocked by the sudden death of our teacher. Mrs. Graver came to take her place.

The next year we entered the second grade with Mrs. Powlen as our teacher. Vera Louise Cook, Kathryn Gallaher, Phyllis Ingram, and Catterlin Davey entered our class, but June Brown moved away.

August 28, 1942, we changed rooms and were now in the third grade, taught by Mrs. Winn. We had the misfortune of losing Vera Cook, Phyllis Ingram, Gerald Raderstorf, Ray Shackelford, Roger Ness, and Catterlin Davey during this year, but Larry Bowers, Betty Button, Jerry Bowers, and Valeria Boxell joined the group.

September 3, 1943, we entered the fourth grade with Mrs. Winn still our teacher. Our Class became smaller when Delores Bailey, J. D. Smith, Paul Winn, George Moyer, Larry Bowers, Erma Stark, Jerry Bowers, and Valeria Boxell left our class. Faithe Bird, Thomas Gordon, James Stevens, Dale Waddups, and Bruce Harris joined our ranks that year.

We again changed rooms this time to start our fifth year with Mrs. Shafer as teacher. At this time we lost Faithe Bird, Lavughn Brown, Timothy Collier, and Dale Waddups, but gained Virginia Lind, Kathryn Swank, and Jimmy Michaels. Kathryn and Virginia remained to graduate with us.

The next school term we entered the sixth grade with the same teacher, Mrs. Shafer. As usual the membership of the class again changed when Betty Button, Thomas Gordon, and Bruce Harris left, and Richard Graul and Delores Garland entered our ranks.

Feeling quite grown up we entered the seventh grade, a new and thrilling experience. The first thing was the election of officers. We elected Marilyn Cotner President, Thelma Harrison Vice President, Sue Winn Secretary and Treasurer, and Miss Hall as sponsor. We lost Thelma Harrison and Richard Graul at the end of this year. During this year all the high school participated in a magazine drive. We won the toy dog given by the Curtis Publishing Company to the class making the greatest sales.

Having survived the seventh grade, we moved on to the eighth. This year we welcomed Janet Cramer, June Brown, and Alice Roe into our class. We elected the following class officers: President, Joan Roller; Vice President, Virginia Lind; Secretary and Treasurer, Paul Henry; and Mr. Jones, sponsor. Virginia Lind was elected as one of the Jr. High Yell Leaders.

Feeling a little shy, we started on our last lap of our long journey. Our ninth grade class officers were: Marilyn Cotner, President; Virginia Lind, Vice President; Kathryn Swank, Secretary and Treasurer; Sue Winn, News Reporter; Joan Roller, Student Council; and Mrs. Mahan, sponsor. We lost June Brown and Alice Roe.

While in the tenth grade we ordered our class sweaters, sun tan with gold on scarlet letters. We also ordered our class rings for next year. Our officers were: Joan Roller, President; James Stevens, Vice President; Virginia Lind, Secretary and Treasurer; Sue Winn, News Reporter; and Miss Phillips, sponsor.

At the beginning of our junior year, we received our class rings. Our officers for this year were: Joan Roller, President; Marilyn Cotner, Vice President; Janet Cramer, Secretary; Sue Winn, Treasurer; Kathryn Swank, Student Council; Virginia Lind, News Reporter; and Mr. Hyman, sponsor. "Cousin Jill From Junction Hill" was our class play. With the money we earned selling ice cream and pop at noon and at basketball games, we gave the seniors of '51" a prom. Putting out the school paper also kept us busy.

We started our final high school year with the following officers: Kathryn Swank, President; Janet Cramer, Vice President; Marilyn Cotner, Secretary; Sue Winn, Treasurer; Joan Roller, Student Council; Paul Henry, News Reporter; and Mr. Connelly, sponsor. We had much to look forward to. A senior trip to Washington D. C., New York, and Niagara Falls in the spring was the height of our ambition, but this meant much work. We planned a scrap drive, magazine campaign, and card sale. Due to the splendid co-operation of the community all three were very successful.

So with much regret, we go out from the walls of Lucerne School with many memories of our high school days.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1952, will our ability to get along with each other to the juniors, who seem to need it.

We, the Senior Girls, will our ability to run the class to the Junior Boys who will need it.

We, the Senior Boys, will our ability to do as least as possible in class projects to the Junior Boys, so they won't have to work so hard in their senior year.

I, Paul Henry, do bequeath my ability to go steady with a girl to David Fletcher, so he won't have any trouble getting a girl to go to the prom. I also bequeath my ability to play in enough basketball on the varsity team in my senior year to John Swank, so he can get a major award.

I, James Stevens, bequeath my ability to get my picture in the paper and to be high scorer for the year to Mac Overmyer. I also will my ability to go with a girl to Richard Powlen, so he will have someone to go to the prom with.

I, Joan Roller, do bequeath my ability to be pianist for the high school chorus to Sally Dickey, so she can be pianist for the chorus in her remaining years of high school. I also will my ability to drive a car to Bill Ashby, so he won't wreck his father's car anymore.

I, Kathryn Swank, do bequeath my office as president of the senior class to Beverley Zeider and my ability to behave in chorus to Dick Dillman and John Swank.

I, Janet Cramer, do bequeath my athletic ability to Mary Curry and my office as vice-president to Robert Newell.

I, Sue Winn, do bequeath my ability to get my driver's license to Dick Dillman, so he won't have to worry about the cops catching him. I also will height to Shirley Roller, so she won't have to look down on her classmates.

I, Marilyn Cotner, do bequeath my natural curly hair to Shirley Spencer and my ability to get in early the night before to Bill Ashby, so he won't go to sleep in history class.

I, Virginia Lind, leave to Leon Wallace my seat in the assembly as a senior, because he might need it in future years. To Donald Fultz I leave my ability to receive my phone calls at home.

We hereby appoint Li'l Abner and Daisey Mae administrators of this, our last Will and Testament, with full power and authority to distribute and convey, lease or mortgage real estate, hereby revoking all former wills heretofore made.
