SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

September, 1951, thirteen enthusiastic little children entered Mrs. Powlen's doorway. They all had smiles from ear to ear because they were looking forward to school. She made them feel at home immediately. They were Jane Barrett, Ralph Christiansen, Tom Deck, David Herd, Kay Herd, Betty Leazenby, Fred Minnick, Jr., Margaret Rance, Teddie Rance, Mary Scheetz, Charles Spencer, David Norzinsky, and Robert Newell. They were all determined to master their 3R's: 'Readin', 'Ritin', and 'Rithmetic. Mrs. Powlen led them through their first two wonderful years of school. The second year Kay Herd and Margaret Rance left but they were soon replaced by Joseph Thompson and Nancy Gilman.

There was a big change in our next year of school. Not only did we change rooms, but we also changed teachers. Our new teacher was Mrs. Winn. Most of us found she was a warm and thoughtful person. We lost Charles Spencer and David Norzinsky. In the fourth grade Mrs. Winn taught us many more interesting subjects about the world. We lost only one student, Betty Leazenby, but she was replaced by Donna Young.

By the time we were moved into Casey Jones' room, most of us were getting a little mean and mischievous. Mr. Jones soon made us realize we had time for this after our school work. In the fifth grade our class lost only one student, Robert Newell. He was replaced by three girls, Dorinda Hilton, Kathy Hicks, and Donna Hillebert. In the sixth grade we lost Donna Hillebert and gained Fred Haring, Betty Leazenby, and Claude Bailey.

When Mr. Jones decided we were ready, up the stairs the intrepid travelers came, immediately making ourselves known in the upper halls. We learned a little more about the fundamentals, searched deeper into the science and health fields, and found reference books in a neat and private room called the library. Our class lost four students that year and also gained four students. We lost Dorinda Hylton, Teddie Rance, Claude Baily, and Betty Leazenby. We gained Madeline Parkinson, Jim Piercefield, Larry Yegerlehner, and Linda Yegerlehner. Our sponsor was Mr. Everett Jester. Mr. Jester was also our sponsor in the eighth grade. We lost Fred Haring and gained Frank Farris that year.

A new challenge met us in our freshman year. There was the great mystery, algebra, to be met and mastered. Mr. Robert Pruitt helped us struggle through it. He was also our sponsor. That year we lost five classmates. They were Frank Farris, Kathy Hicks, Madeline Parkinson, Jim Piercefield, and Donna Young.

As sophomores we had only one change, the addition of George Mohler. Mr. Pruitt, our sponsor, took most of us on a small trip to Shipshewanna. We had many adventures such as airplane rides, boatrides, swimming, baseball, volleyball, and saw many interesting sights. We were also involved in many other active sports.

By the time we were juniors, we were sure we had the school under control. Mr. Pruitt helped us with many projects during his three years with us, but this was our big year! We sold candy, magazines, pop, and candy. We had the Halloween one-act play, "Overnight Guests." Our three-act play was "Atta-Boy, Walt." Our prom was held at the Purdue Union Building. We took our class trip that year also. We were thrilled to go to New York and Washington, D. C. by train. Our train picked up a group of Seniors from San Pierre and they accompanied us all through the trip. We all thank Mr. Pruitt for his guidance and understanding ability through most of our high school years.

The final year began with Larry Yegerlehner, Linda Yegerlehner, and George Mohler moving from us. Our graduating class consisted of Jane Barrett, Ralph Christiansen, Tom Deck, Nancy Gilman, David Herd, Fred Minnick, and Mary Ellen Scheetz. Mr. Ballard acted as our sponsor for our final year. We could hardly wait for the moment of graduation, yet we were beginning to realize that adventures of education were just beginning. College called some, others wanted to become proficient in a special field of work. The advantage of becoming educated, we realized, is never completed as long as one is alive. We knew we all would look back at Lucerne School with sincere admiration and would deeply regret leaving the beloved institution.

PROPHECY

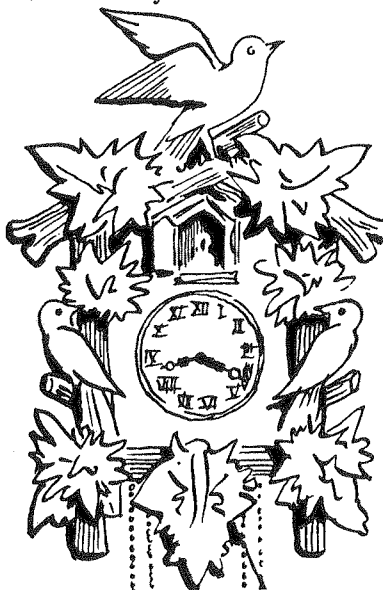

One day, as I sat gazing out the window of my Beverly Hill mansion, I began to wonder what had happened to all the old class of "63" graduates. I finally decided that I had to know, so I hopped into my private jet and raced toward the new capitol of the United States, Lucerne.

After fifteen minutes of fighting the noon-hour traffic, I landed in Lucerne at the giant new airport. I knew that Jane Barrett, one of the graduates, had been elected the first woman President of the United States, so I headed for the White House. Jane very graciously invited me in. We began chatting away, and, as I was sitting there, her private nurse entered with Jane's sixteen children. I almost fainted when I saw that the nurse was none other than Mary Ellen Scheetz. Jane said that Mary was the outstanding nurse in the United States and was also a remarkable scientist. It seems she was the genius who invented the cure for the common cold. Jane had to rush off to an important executive meeting, so I bade her a hurried good-bye and went on my way.

I walked down the now unfamiliar main street of Lucerne, and, suddenly a sign caught my eye. It read 'Dr. Fredrick Minnick Dentist'. My couriesity was aroused, so I walked inside. Sure enough, it was Fred, one of the "63" graduates. Although he is now a famous dentist, he was still the same friendly guy I had known. I began asking questions about his classmates. He told me that Ralph Christianson was a car dealer. Ralph never sold his little red Chevy, and, although It's rather beat-up, it's now featured in the antique auto show. Fred also said that Tom Deck was the newly elected Sheriff of Lucerne County. I was so glad that Tom had been elected after all those years of campaigning. David Herd is now a top pro basketball player. He also sells car insurance as a side line. The only person I hadn't heard about was Nancy Gilman. Fred said that she is a fashion Model in New York. She also is married and has ten children. I glanced at my watch and saw that it was almost quarter 'til five, and, if I wanted to be home by five, and, If I wanted to be home by five, I'd have to hurry. So I said goodbye to Fred and hurried back to my jet.

As I was flying toward home, I couldn't help but feel proud of the "63" graduates. I was so glad that they were all so successful, but then, we all knew they would be.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Jane Barrett, do bequeath my ability to lose my glasses at Purdue's Hall of Music and all the "pleasures" that come with it to Dianné Clary. (I will my books to Lynn Baker so she may gain as much or more knowledge as I have gained from them.) To my brother, Ed, I will my ability to find a way to every ballgame and other activities through the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Thomas or Sam Powlen.

I, Ralph Christiansen, do bequeath my ability to look as if I'm studying to Judi Baker so she won't have to study so hard: my ability to drive a car to Gloria Hardy so Mr. Ballard won't be complaining all the time: my gum I've left in several places to Steve Cress so he'll have something to chew on: my ability to skip school without getting caught to Mark Jones so he may find some fun in his school life: my Long Johns to the girls that get cold in school so they won't have to wear those ugly pants to school.

I, Tom Deck, do bequeath my ability to grow long hair to Steve Cress and to Sam Powlen, my seat in the assembly so he may keep warm in the winter time. To all underclassmen I leave my Logansport Directory of the high school girls.

I, Nancy Gilman, do bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to underclassmen who need it: my seat by the radiator to any junior who grabs it first: to my brother Bill I leave my pencil stubs, and to Chuck my ability to look innocent so he won't get caught misbehaving in study hall: to my sister Lucy I leave my clothes which she wears any way.

I, David Herd, do bequeath my ability to stay out of the office (except on rare occasions) to the students in Mrs. Markell's study hall, so they won't use good shoe leather going to and from the office. To my brother Darrell I leave my ability to "live it up" during school so he won't have to study so much. And I leave my height to anyone who is too short to play basketball so they too can have the opportunity of having Mr. Ballard yell at them.

I, Frederick R. Minnick, Jr, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to Judi Baker my blue sweater so she will be warm in study hall: to my good friend, Larry Winn, I leave my ability to jump so he can touch the rim: to all underclassmen I leave my ability to go to the office "only on business."

I, Mary Scheetz, being of sound mind do bequeath to any underclassman who is lucky enough to get it first, my desk by the radiator so he can keep warm on the cold winter days and keep cool on the warmer days of the school year. To Jill Scheetz, I leave all of my senior books so she will be able to enjoy her senior year with a lot of beautiful books, I hope she will get more out of them than I did. To my sisters I wish the best of luck in their remaining school years. I will to my younger brother the ability to stay out of trouble for the rest of his school career.
